

Saw Metcalf at the barn about 8:00 o'clock. Saw him come to the barn in company with Lee and Mackey. Came from Ward livery barn. Saw men take a drink of whisky. Burkey, Lee, Butler witness and others took drink out of a bottle. Lee furnished the liquor. Took bottle from his pocket. This occurred in the barn-door. Metcalf still remained at the barn. Saw Fowler go in the office, also Metcalf. This was short time after took a drink. Saw Metcalf take a drink or two before Metcalf went into the office. All present took two drinks. All drank out of the same bottle until it was gone. Butler had a pint bottle and all drank out of this bottle—including Metcalf. Metcalf went in office about 20 minutes after he reached the barn. Stood up in the office all the time. Witness said Lee took bottle out of his pocket—a pint bottle, supposed to be whisky. Bottle was half full. Saw Lee take small bottle from pocket and poured contents into large bottle. Bottle size of perfume bottle. Saw the liquid and it was white. It had an odor. Witness said the liquid Lee poured into the whisky was ether. Mackey said "Don't put too much in, you might kill him." Lee said "I only put enough in to make him sleep." Lee put bottle containing ether in his pocket and went into the office and gave Metcalf a drink out of the bottle in which the ether had been poured.

Lee then gave the bottle to Mackey who put it in his inside pocket. Witness was shown the bottle in which the ether had been placed and said it was the same bottle. Said Lee took the vial and threw it away. Lee got the horse and Burkey the buggy and harness. This was about 8:30. Metcalf was in the office while horse was being hitched up. While hitching up the horse heard Metcalf say it was too cold to ride. Metcalf got into the buggy with the assistance of Lee and witness. Said Metcalf could not get in the buggy alone. Lee asked witness to help put Metcalf in the buggy. Witness assisted. Got in at right side of the buggy. The side curtains were on. Didn't know who put the curtains on.

Heard Lee say to Mackey, "Keep him away until after the trial." Mackey said he would. Lee gave Mackey a dollar and said would give more if that was not enough. Then they drove away. Before starting Lee got Rinehart's overcoat and placed it on Metcalf. Witness said Lee put a bottle in the rear of the rig. Also gave the bottle to Mackey which contained the ether. Mackey put it in his pocket. It was half full. Lee said to Mackey, "Be careful of this bottle." Wolfe was present when they left the barn. Witness, Lee and Fowler went into the office. Mackey said, "good night" as he was leaving. Lee also said, "good bye." Witness and Lee had a talk in the office. Fowler said "too bad to send him away in that condition." Lee said "if anything happens we will lay on Mackey; he is old enough to die."

Witness went home and Lee was still at the office. Learned next morning Metcalf was dead. Burkey told him. Talked with Lee next morning at Rinehart barn. Lee said "Metcalf won't be back for the trial." Talked with Lee in jail and latter said "Do you think Mackey will tell?"

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Examination of Alfred Wolfe was continued by Mr. Stillwell. Witness said he talked with Lee at Rinehart barn in which Lee said he would probably go to Columbus on Wednesday.

Cross-examined by Judge Wright. Had license for selling liquor, which expired in June. Had government license for one year. Had such license on March 20. Had government license for purpose of selling whisky in the city of Mt. Vernon. Engaged for a year in selling liquor in city. Had no place of business. Said he was a "bootlegger" for some time. Not engaged in such for six months. Worked at Rinehart barn for $1 a day as a driver. Only paid when he drove someone from the barn. Witness kept whisky at home while he was bootlegging. Also kept whisky at Rinehart barn. Kept one or two pints in the manger. Kept a gallon at his house. Kept more at times. On March 20, had 2 or 3 pints at home. Witness said he dealt in horses prior to becoming a "bootlegger." Witness was arrested three times in Mt. Vernon—once for intoxication and twice for bootlegging. Found guilty of charges. All arrests prior to March last. Witness knew B. E. Sapp. Didn't see him at Rinehart barn in the afternoon. Witness unable to give the size of the vial which Lee took out of his pocket at the barn. Could give description of other bottle Lee had in his hand. Said it was five inches in length. Said it was a 14 oz. bottle. Witness said bottle introduced as evidence was a 14-oz. bottle and not a 16-oz. bottle.

Bottle containing ether was put in inside pocket of Mackey's coat. Saw no bottle in Mackey's overcoat. Saw no one else give Mackey any bottle of liquor. Couldn't remember about Mackey buttoning his overcoat before getting into the rig. Witness became confused as to whether or not Mackey wore an overcoat. Bottles Lee put in back of the buggy not wrapped up. Took a bottle from each hip pocket. Saw Butler look at Lee when he placed bottles in the buggy. Witness had seen hundreds of whiskey bottles that he could not tell from the bottle introduced as evidence. In this case, Witness was a witness at coroner's inquest. Witness realized he was under oath at coroner's inquest. Never said at the inquest that Lee put contents of a small bottle into the contents of a larger one. Said coroner never asked him the question.

Venture In Matrimony By Marion Woman

Granted Fifth Divorce Saturday, Married Same Day

Granted a degree of divorce from William Lever last Thursday in the courts of Marion county, Alice Johnson Arouhant Jenkins Brady Lever Edersole, was married for the sixth time to Samuel H. Fetter, a Prospect farmer, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. F. Zechel, pastor of the Marion Reformed Church.

The bride is believed to hold the Marion county record for marriages and divorces. She is forty-eight years old and her new husband is two years her junior.

Several weeks ago, when the last divorce case of the bride was heard by Judge Scofield he came to the conclusion that the testimony of Mr. Lever, who lives in Columbus, should also be heard. Lever was notified and he soon afterward came into court, telling the judge that he would be doing him a great favor by granting her a divorce decree. He said that he was her fifth husband and that she had been divorced from all of them but him.

On last Thursday, Judge Scofield granted her the favor asked by him and restored the much married woman to her maiden name of Edersole. Mr. and Mrs. Fetter will make their future home on a farm near Prospect.
